

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62.27

Quality Iris

SNYDER'S

1 9 4 3

W. S. SNYDER

3822 Fourth Ave.

Sioux City, Iowa

ALZA HOLA

Our introduction in 1941.

A Spanish salute calling attention.

The coloring of this Iris may be visualized.

A bit of clear colors seen a day when sun, sky and colorless clouds in approach.

S. That of the thin airy cloud with the blue of the sky filtering through, together with a dim glow of noon day sun bordering the edge of the broad rounded standards.

F. That soft tone of the unveiled sky, edged of golden glow.....$20.00

Your order for ALZA HOLA will also include iris—Great Lakes, Happy Days, Nylon and China Maid.

BLUSHING YOUTH

Our introduction in 1942.

A soft tone pink self without blue reflex.

S. Closed of rounding form.

F. Slightly flar of standard size, placement pleasing on 36-in. well branching stalk$15.00

Your order for BLUSHING YOUTH will also include iris—Flora Campbell, Deep South, and Sierra Snow.

BRIGHT MELODY

Our introduction in 1940.

Is quite a break in color of Concord grape in sunshine. S. closed and of balanced size.
F. well rounded, the predominating color, shading off to a rich brown with the beard$10.00

Your order for BRIGHT MELODY will also include iris—Treasure Island, Kansas Sunrise, and Red Glemm.

IOWA GLORY

Our introduction in 1941.

A rich maroon self with intense heavy texture, prominent orange beard.....$2.50

Your order for IOWA GLORY will also include iris—San Francisco, Rameses, and Dupete Nomblot.

Three Iris only—Alza Hola, Blushing Youth and Bright Melody.....Net $32.50

NISHNABOTNA

Our introduction in 1936.

S. reddish violet; strong midrib; styles gold, crest violet; F. reddish purple overlaid pansy black sheen, reticulated heavy brown on white ground haft.....$1.00

Your order for NISHNABOTNA will also include iris—Buechleys Giant and Sonny Boy.

SIOUX CITY

Our introduction in 1939.

An even self. Heliotrope coloring that retains its delicate rare beauty in any light. A proportionate flower; S. arching cupped; F. drooping semi-flare; stalk 36 inches and of sufficient size to support the large blooms$2.00

Your order for SIOUX CITY will also include iris—Dauntless and Red Bonnet.

Other varieties at this season's prices.

A Square Deal

Terms: Cash with order.
